COMMUNITY CONCERNS FROM February 2017 BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING AND RESPONSES BY DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

CONCERN: Several members of the PSEA executive board addressed the Board regarding concerns about new teacher evaluations, mixed messages, 7th period assignments and high numbers of students with discipline issues placed in their classes.

Concerns about the Academy were also shared with the Board.

RESPONSE: The concerns brought forward are personnel matters that are confidential in nature and unique to each individual. The District is unable to discuss these issues.

There is a recommendation on the board agenda tonight to close the Academy for the 2017-18 school year.

CONCERN: Employee, Paul Clay, shared concerns that he has filed three complaints since August 2016 with no resolution.

RESPONSE: Tonya Davis, Chief Human Resources Officer has reached out to Mr. Clay, via email, to attempt to address his concerns.

CONCERN: Employee, Adam Cyhan, shared concerns about how an employee had been evaluated.

RESPONSE: The concern is considered a personnel matter that is confidential in nature and unique to the individual.
